RALLY!

AGAINST BUDGET REDUCTIONS

Wednesday, March 24th at 5:30 PM

Boston School Department, 26 Court St.

The mayoral-appointed Boston School Committee is slated to vote for yet another round of budget cuts on Wednesday, March 24, at 6:00 PM. This year, FY 2011, the committee plans to approve a budget reduction of $32.5 Million. Enough is enough. Instead of accepting budget reductions, the committee ought to demand more: more funding; more resources. How can our schools be expected to do more each year with less? How can some of our schools be labeled 'underperforming' when they have been under-resourced?

RALLY ON WED., MARCH 24, 5:30 PM
