

BTU/AFT Teacher Leaders Program presents

TEACHER LEADERSHIP TALKS:

CONNECTING POLICY TO CLASSROOM REALITY

Thursday, May 31st at the Boston Teachers Union
Program: 4:30-7:30 pm • Reception to follow

Get a view of education policy as it really impacts students and schools. Join our 2017-18 Policy Fellows as they share their research and recommendations into the issues that matter most in their classrooms and schools. Refreshments served, reception to follow.

This event is open to all, but please RSVP at BIT.LY/BTUTLP.

Theresa Loliscio and Laura Henry, Speech-Language Pathologists:
Impact of Socioeconomic Status and Race on Student Discipline Rates in Different BPS Schools

Tatiana Williams-Rodriguez, Boston Latin Academy:
Black Teacher Recruitment and Retention Within the BPS

Ernsie Noel, Haley Pilot School:
What Mental Health Supports Can Be Put in Place to Help Retain Effective Teachers?

Myra Castro, Rafael Hernandez School:
Implementing RTI in Schools

Quayisha Ferguson, Henry Grew School:
Culturally Linguistically Sustaining Practice – What, Why and How?

Shelly Wen, Josiah Quincy Upper School:
Impact of Right-To-Work on Teaching and Learning Conditions

Lindsay Thornquist, Hurley K-8 School:
Bilingualism and Dual Language Education

Faustino Ajanel, HubSchools: Boston's Community Schools:
HubSchools: How Can ELLs Benefit?

Clara Lucien, King K-8 School and Matt Sances, East Boston High School:
How Can PILOT Program Serve Boston Public Schools?

Bianca Pierre, Trotter Innovation School:
Parent Engagement in School

Luann Silva, Joyce Kilmer School:
Teacher Work-Life Balance:
Reimagining Our School Day

Note: The experiences, views and policy recommendations in these presentations represent the views of the individual teacher leaders and do not necessarily represent the views of the Boston Teachers Union.