

Reformation of Final Interim Memorandum of Understanding Between Boston Teachers Union and The Boston School Committee

WHEREAS, on April 17, 2020, the Boston Teachers Union AFT-Massachusetts and the Superintendent of Schools for the School Committee of the City of Boston executed a Final Interim Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”) containing work expectations for teachers, paraprofessionals and a series of other job classifications; and

WHEREAS, the parties both intended that the following words be included under “Work Expectations” for the Teachers and Substitute Teachers in Section 2A4(a)2 and in Section 2A4(b)1 for Paraprofessionals: “No more than two (2) consecutive synchronous hours may be required at any one time”; and

WHEREAS, the parties agree that the above-quoted language was not included in their MOU by virtue of a mutual mistake which they now wish to correct by reformation;

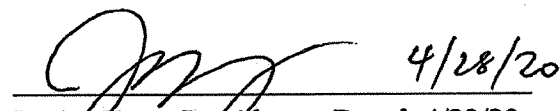

NOW THEREFORE, the parties do hereby reform their MOU by declaring that the following sentence shall be deemed included in Section 2A4(a)2 for Teachers and Substitute Teachers and in Section 2A4(b)1 for Paraprofessionals.

“No more than two (2) consecutive, synchronous hours may be required at any one time.”
