

Homework Assistance Program (HAP) at the Boston Public Library

September 21, 2020 – May 14, 2021

Starting Monday, September 21, The Boston Public Library will offer free online homework help and mentorship provided by trained high-achieving high school students.

Who: Students grades K-8 are welcome on a drop-in basis, no registration required.

When: Monday – Thursday 3:30 p.m. – 5:30 p.m. for the 2020-2021 school year starting September 21, 2020 and ending May 14, 2021

Where: HAP meetings can be accessed through Zoom links on www.bpl.org/homework. 4 Zoom links representing Library branches will be available – please join the call that includes the branch you would regularly attend based on your school or home.

HAP mentor trainings are provided by Harvard University's Public School Partnerships team, the developers of SmartTALK, a program that uses research-based tools, strategies, and resources to support students during homework time.
